

SONGWON announces exclusive distribution partnership with Chemo International Inc.

Ulsan, South Korea – April 15, 2021 – Songwon Industrial Co., Ltd., the world's 2nd largest manufacturer of polymer stabilizers and key global player in the specialty chemicals business is pleased to announce that it has entered a distribution partnership with Chemo International Inc., for its Business Unit (BU) Coatings.

Headquartered in Miami, Florida, Chemo International has been a leading distributor of chemicals, raw materials and equipment to the Paint and Coatings Industry in Central America and the Caribbean for 50 years. Under the agreement, Chemo International will leverage its experience, reputation and market insight to grow SONGWON's developing business across the region and expand customer awareness of SONGWON's comprehensive portfolio of solutions.

"We are delighted to have such an established and well-known distributor representing SONGWON," says Sean Steres, Sales Manager, Americas. "With their history and expertise, Chemo International is a great addition to SONGWON's global distributor network and is positioned to help us to respond to the increasing customer demand in this region while advancing SONGWON's position in the market."

Commenting on the agreement, Israel de la Torre, Purchasing Manager, Chemo International said: "We are honored to enter a long-term relationship with SONGWON. Its technology, excellent support and product portfolio creates the perfect complement to Chemo's existing lines. We are looking forward to growing the business together and introducing SONGWON's products to our customers across our assigned territories."
