

SONGWON implements new, leaner leadership structure

Ulsan, South Korea – April 03, 2020 – SONGWON Industrial Co., Ltd. (www.songwon.com) the 2nd largest manufacturer of polymer stabilizers in the world, and key global player in the specialty chemicals business announced today that it has made changes to its leadership structure to streamline the company moving forward.

The company reports that the changes implemented aim to facilitate faster decisions, simplified processes and enable SONGWON to increase its agility by returning to its traditionally lean organizational structure. The Executive Committee will now include 6 members instead of 8. With this change, Doug Excell, Leader Quality Assurance, Regulatory & Best Practices and Olivier Keiser, Chief Sustainability Officer and Leader Procurement & International Supply left SONGWON at the end of March. The company thanks them for their many years of dedication to SONGWON. In line with these changes, the responsibility for the business functions has been split between the current members of the Executive Committee.
